ADAM HELLER
for STATE REP.

Adam Heller is running for State Representative to bring his expertise in finance and accounting to the House of Representatives on behalf of Shelton residents. There is much work to be done at the State level and we need progressive ideas to balance our budget - but not on the backs of working families. We must have an economic agenda that works for middle-class families while investing in transportation and infrastructure.

As a member of the City of Shelton's Board of Apportionment and Taxation, Adam has brought his experience with municipal budgeting and accounting to the table to advocate for a transparent budget process. He has fought for greater efficiency in the budget to save taxpayer dollars now and in the future.

Adam graduated from the University of Connecticut with degrees in Finance and Economics. His professional career has been rooted in financial management, and he currently operates a budget of $3 million dollars in a large municipality in Connecticut. Adam knows how to manage budgets, and how to get the job done - even in difficult economic times.

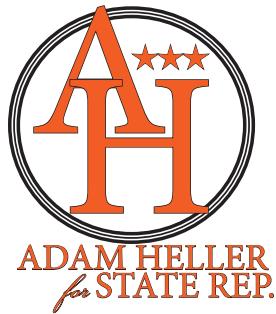

Adam is proud to be endorsed by the AFL-CIO representing thousands of hard working men and women.
